REPORT NO.

1. Reports have been received that Sergio Volosky Nironch, who was arrested as a teacher of political economy in the Communist Party of Chile (PCCh) in September 1949, was the secretary of a Communist cell which was charged with the task of penetrating Jewish circles in Chile. When Volosky was arrested, police found a list of names in his possession which they surmised to be Communist militants or supporters. It has since been learned that many of these individuals have never been Communists, and that they were listed possibly as representing groups which could be penetrated.

2. The following individuals on Volosky's list have been identified as having Communist affiliations:

a. Bedrack, Moises

He has been reported by the Chilean press as of known Communist Party affiliation. He was sent to Iquique by the government as an architect in the Departamento de Urbanismo but was recalled when his Communist connections were revealed by the press reports.

b. Benado, Ernesto

He was one of 11 individuals arrested in July 1949 for distributing anti-government literature and writing subversive signs on walls.

c. Borzon, David

One David Borzon was listed 27 August 1949 as a foreign student and member of a student team which took over a meeting place of Federacion de Estudiantes de Chile as part of the Communist Party plot and was forcibly ejected. One David Borzon Chulak, 21, was listed as an engineering student and Communist who was arrested for distributing anti-government pamphlets in July 1949. He was also listed as member of the second group of pioneers for the youth publication Mundo Nuevo, and a member of the staff of the Communist Party Youth.

He was listed in El Siglo as a Communist Party leader sent by Regional Committee of Juventud Comunista of Santiago to Puente Alto 6 September 1947.

i. Sinetar

One Leopoldo Sinetar was listed by El Siglo in 1947 as a Communist Party youth member.

3. It has been reported that Volosky has been in disagreement with the Party directors on some aspects of the economic situation since he will not admit that the capitalist system is now on the verge of collapse.

4. Sergio Volosky, an engineer and a Chilean Jew, was a student leader and worked in the Ministerio de Vias y Obras until 1948. His sister, Linda Volosky, is a professor in the Escuela de Educadoras de Parbulos, and is a militant Communist. She is married to Dr. Julio Cabello, assistant to Dr. Cruz Coke. Cabello was one of the doctors who attended Ricardo Fonseca, deceased Secretary General of the Communist Party of Chile. Another sister, Dora Volosky, is married to Luis Hernandez Parker, former Secretary General of the Juventud Comunista, who was expelled from the Party in 1938. He is now a political commentator on the Radio Sociedad Nacional de Agricultura, and political editor for the magazine Ercilla. He has been accused by the Communist Party of being an American agent. Volodia Teitelboim, prominent Communist Party director, is also a cousin of Volosky.
